The Senate convened and proceeded with a period of morning business.

H.R. 3590 (Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act).

Reid amendment #2786 (In Nature of a Substitute). The amendment is considered original bill text for amendment purposes.

Reid asked unanimous consent all amendments to the pending bill be considered out of order unless they're consistent with the following two principles: the additional surpluses in the Social Security trust fund generated by this act should be reserved for social security and not spent in this act in any other fashion, and, number two, the net savings generated by the class program should be reserved for the class program and not spent by any other manner in this act. Enzi objected.

Reid asked unanimous consent that no amendments be in order to the Reid substitute amendment 2786 or a subsequent substitute amendment to H.R. 3590 if additional surplus in the Social Security trust fund generated by this act would be expended in other provisions of this act and not reserved solely for Social Security. And, the net savings generated by the class program in the underlying substitute amendment and any subsequent substitute amendment is reserved solely for the class program provisions of this act. Enzi objected.

Mikulski amend #2791 (to clarify provisions relating to first dollar coverage for preventative services for women). Laid aside.

McCain Motion to Recommit H.R. 3590 (Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act) with Instructions. Laid aside.

S. Res. 364 (National Diabetes Month). Agreed to by voice vote.

The Senate will convene at 10:00 AM on Tuesday, December 1st and will resume consideration of H.R. 3590 (Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act).
